

Chiropractic Care for Diverse Populations

Kim B. Khauv, DC MPH

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

After taking this online course, the student will be able to:

1. Recognize US population diversity trends.
2. Understand how religion plays a role in healthcare.
3. Understand how to provide care to Asian Americans, African Americans, Latin/Hispanic Americans, Native Americans, and Caucasian Americans.
4. Know how to be culturally sensitive and appropriate to diverse patients.
5. Know when and how to properly use an interpreter.

COURSE OUTLINE:

Hours 1

What is the US population? How is trending? What is it in 2050?
Who are religious and how does religion play a role in healthcare?

Hour 2-3

Taking care of Asian Americans and African Americans

Hour 4-5

Taking care of Latin/Hispanic Americans, Native Americans, and Caucasian Americans

Hours 6

Applying knowledge to be culturally sensitive and appropriate to patients
Using an interpreter