

Ethics & Law

Learning Objectives

Dr. Michelle Massa, DC, CEES

Learning Outcomes:

The participant will have a thorough understanding of California Ethics and Laws as they pertain to the practice of chiropractic and best practices for documentation, scope of practice and mandated reporting. Review of ethical considerations in the doctor-patient relationship.

The participant will gain clarification on doctor's duties including ethical conduct based on Medicare standards of care.

The participant will learn to be able to differentiate appropriate conduct as it relates to marketing, advertising and referrals.

The participant will understand the significance of documentation in relation to scope of practice and best practices for referring of patients for co-management.

2-hour course

Hour 1

Review of California Chiropractic Ethics & Laws as stated in the Rules and Regulations of the California Board of Chiropractic Examiners

Hour 2

In depth study of Doctor's Duties

In depth study of Ethical Conduct