

Jennifer Pedley, MS, DC, CCSP®, DACBR resides in Redlands, California. She achieved her Bachelor of Science degree in Biology/Pre-medicine and in Exercise and Sport Science at University of Wisconsin- La Crosse. Her doctorate degree in chiropractic was obtained at Northwestern Health Sciences University in Minneapolis, Minnesota. She also completed the radiology residency at National University of Health Sciences and successfully passed American Chiropractic Board of Radiology examination. During the residency, she achieved a Master of Science (M.S.) degree in diagnostic imaging, a diplomate as a board certified chiropractic radiologist and a Certified Chiropractic Sport Physician (C.C.S.P)®. Following the residency, Jennifer also attended a visiting radiology fellowship at Duke University Medical Center in Durham, North Carolina.

Today, Jennifer has a private radiology consulting practice reading for medical and chiropractic doctors, lawyers and imaging centers such as University Medical Imaging in Sacramento, CA. She is also the Past president of the American Chiropractic College of Radiology (ACCR), a radiology lecturer for organizations in California, Foot Levelers and Footmaxx. Dr. Pedley can be reached at 700 East Redlands Blvd., Ste U130, Redlands, CA 92373; Phone: 909.353.9348; Email: jennifer@jprad.com; Website: www.jprad.com

