

Record keeping for minors: In California, pediatric medical records must be retained for at least one year after the minor turns 18, and in any case, no less than seven years. For children who saw a doctor at age 5, for example, the records must be kept until they are 19, whereas records for a 16-year-old must be kept until they are at least 23.