

Can my office staff administer physiotherapy in the office?

Yes. Office staff can perform duties that DO NOT require clinical judgement.

All information must be in the treatment plan and updated every 30 days.

Specific details/directions/settings must be in file.